WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND

To All Non-Members and New Candidates—

This is a Wonderful and Helpful Organization sponsored by Islam Temple. Pays $1000 immediately upon the death of a member. Average for past four years—20 assessments. Assessments $1.10, $1.30, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, according to age, and the assessment rate at time of joining does not change as your age increases.

Resources September 1, 1926—$66,234.97; resources September 1, 1927—$79,178.99. A healthy gain for the year.

Fifty-three claims of $1000 each were paid to the beneficiaries. These were paid by 23 assessments levied on the membership.

To the Members of the Fund—

Show your interest. Get a new member. If each member works and gets another Noble to join, just think of the good work this enlarged membership can accomplish.

Call on NOBLE WARREN MILLER at the office for information.

Special Meeting at Our Club Rooms

650 Geary Street

Monday, November 14, 1927, 8 P. M.

To consider the following resolution presented by the Building Committee:

The following resolution is introduced at the stated meeting of Islam Temple, dated October 13, 1927, with the understanding that the same shall be balloted upon by the membership at the stated meeting of our Temple on November 10, 1927, notice of said resolution to be given the membership through the medium of the November, 1927, Bulletin.

It is understood that the membership of the Temple at such November, 1927, stated meeting, may adopt in full or reject in full this resolution or may at said meeting adopt said resolution as amended in any manner that the same may be amended by the membership at the said stated meeting of November, 1927.

It is further understood before the resolution is balloted upon, the Building Committee shall report to the membership the manner in which they propose to finance said building and Temple and also inform them as to the style and detail of the proposed building and Temple and the approximate cost and expected revenue therefrom.

RESOLVED, That the Building Committee now acting for Islam Temple, of which Noble William H. Woodfield, Jr., is chairman, together with such other members as the said chairman or this or any future Potentate of Islam Temple may add to said committee, is herewith given full authority to acquire such site as they may deem advisable for the erection of a suitable building and Temple for Islam Temple, and that they further be authorized to make such financial arrangements by bond issues or otherwise, to finance the acquisition of the site, and the erection of the building and Temple, as they may deem advisable.

It is the sense of this resolution that the said chairman of said committee and the present Potentate and any future Potentates, may, until such building is finally completed, add such members to said Building Committee as they may deem advisable. Power is herewith given them so to do.

Islam Temple herewith ratifies anything that the said committee may do in reference to the purchasing of said site and the financing of said building and Temple and the erection of said building and Temple, it being, however, the sense of this resolution that said committee shall report at each stated meeting of Islam Temple the progress of said venture for the purpose of receiving constructive suggestions from the membership, and for the purpose of keeping the membership fully informed as to the acquisition of site and features and details of the proposed building and Temple and the financing of the same.

JOHN D. MCGILVRAY.

This resolution was to be acted on at the Stated Meeting, November 10, 1927.

By order of the Potentate, a Special Meeting is called to consider this vital matter in order that all members who are interested can be present and participate, and on account of the many other matters that must be considered at the regular stated session.

By order of

JULIAN D. HARRIES, Potentate.

Attest: HERMAN WERTSCH, Recorder.

Last Ceremonial for the Year 1927

Nobles IT IS IMPORTANT

That you bear in mind that the last Ceremonial for the year will be held in the CIVIC AUDITORIUM, DECEMBER 27th, 1927.

Also, this is the last opportunity to impart the news to your friend who is eligible to membership that the raise of the initiation fee from $100.00 to $150.00 takes effect January 1st, 1928, and

NOW IS THE TIME TO JOIN.

The Membership Committee solicits your co-operation and help in making this a BANNER CLASS.

The Ceremonial Committee is working hard to make this Ceremonial one that will go down in history as the Most Brilliant and Spectacular ever held, BUT we need the candidates to do this.

SO GET A CANDIDATE AND LET'S GO!

Yours in the Faith,

THE MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE.
